

Dear Friend of Peace:

Mussolini says we are going to have war. What do YOU say? What will you DO?

PEACE ACTION

The machinery for Peace Action has been set up. It is for you to decide whether it will be effective. You no longer have the chance to say, with a hopeless gesture, "What can I do about it?"

The Syracuse Peace Council is organized and equipped to answer that question in practical and definite terms. Its list of sponsors and supporters already includes over twenty organizations and the names of fifty prominent citizens. Its Peace Bond Campaign is in full swing. It needs workers. Call the Chairman of the Committee, 2-4623, and say: "I want to help sell Bonds."

WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT IT? is no longer the question.
WILL I DO ANYTHING? is the problem you face.

PEACE EDUCATION

DISCUSSION PROGRAMS

Wherever groups are meeting for discussion in schools, churches or clubs there is need for well planned material to stimulate thinking and make the task of the leader an easier one. HEADLINE BOOKS provide basic texts for the questions of the year - War, Dictatorship, Trade, Politics, the Far East, Preparedness. Study helps are provided free with 10 copies of any one of the HEADLINE BOOKS for $2.00. Single copies 25¢. Address: Foreign Policy Association, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

IN SYRACUSE

Mr. Frederick J. Libby, Executive Secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, spent Friday, March 20, in Syracuse, interviewing students and peace leaders. He spoke briefly over WFBL at noon, and addressed a meeting of the Peace Council in the afternoon. Mr. Libby defined the policy of the NCPW, ~~outlined the Peace Bond Campaign and told the thrilling stories of the effectiveness of Peace Action.~~ It was a day of inspiration and stimulation. He commended the Syracuse Council on its organization and plans, but urged prompt action in following up the foundation work already done.

Two copies of Oswald Garrison Villard's splendid article, "We Militarize", reprinted from the February Atlantic Monthly, are available at the Peace Library in the YMCA Building. Several copies of Harper's with timely articles on how America can stay out of future wars can also be obtained there. Consult Mr. Jones' Secretary.

Two great peace advocates will speak at the Civic Lenten Services in the Mizpah. Kagawa, Japanese Christian and exponent of consumers' Cooperatives, will be heard at noon on April 3rd, and John Haynes Holmes of the Community Church in New York City will talk at noon on April 1st and 2nd.

SPECIAL. We desperately need $2.50 for an extension telephone to our work room. Who will help provide a telephone for peace? Public proclamation of thanks next time.

THREE QUESTIONS TO TEST THE DEPTH OF YOUR PEACE SENTIMENT:

1. Have you sent in your book of stamps? Many have. We need many more.
2. How many of the letters suggested in February have you written? Wishes are futile but letters count.
3. Have you bought or sold a Dollar Peace Bond? Better buy Peace Bonds now than War Bonds later.

FOR PEACE'S SAKE! At an exhibit in the Frederick Keppel Galleries in New York last fall the noted artist, Kerr Eby, war veteran, distributed an anti-war pamphlet which concluded, "I am a very profane man. I am not being profane now when I say: 'For Christ's sake, say or do what you can.'"

WARS ARE DIFFICULT TO STOP! THEY CAN BE PREVENTED! VOTERS MUST ACT NOW!
