Welcome to a fair where craftspeople and community groups gather to share inspiration and talent, reinforcing the sense of community among those who support the Peace Council's work. Plowshares is a major fundraising event for the Syracuse Peace Council (SPC).

The following guidelines aim to create a crafts fair of variety and quality, and provide a community cultural event that is consistent with our vision of a world where people enjoy their work and have control over it.
Info specific to community groups is in italics.

Come celebrate with us this year!

DISPLAY SPACE AND FEES

See page 3 for booth sizes and fees. Renting more than one space is not permitted. Your storage and access needs must be contained within the designated boundaries of your space. Please understand that no space is provided between booths. You and your customers must be able to enter and exit your booth within the space you have rented. Electricity is available on a limited basis ($15 fee). Chairs will NOT be provided. YOU MUST PROVIDE YOUR OWN CHAIRS AND TABLE(S).

PUBLICITY

We do extensive publicity through local papers, lawn signs, posters, mailings, fliers, calendar listings in periodicals and social media, plus TV and radio announcements. We will send you posters to put up in your area and postcards that you can send to your patrons. Digital resources for additional publicity will be available at <http://www.peacecouncil.net/plowshares>.

CRAFT SHOW PARTICIPATION

Applicants must staff their own displays, sell only their own work, and be present for the entire show. No packing up until the show is over.

Part of the participation fee is providing one item representing the mid-range of your merchandise. This piece will be sold at the SPC CRAFTS TABLE with proceeds directly supporting the work of SPC.

Work displayed must be consistent with work juried.

PLOWSHARES RAFFLE No raffle other than the PLOWSHARES RAFFLE is permitted. Our raffle is an important SPC fundraiser.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Additional applications are available on the web at www.peacecouncil.net/plowshares.

We seek a balanced show with a variety of quality crafts; as such, some categories may be limited. Preference will be given to applications from Central New York.

Plowshares is a juried show. We seek crafts that are consistent with the Peace Council's political and social philosophy. For example: no to toy guns; yes to dolls that reflect the diversity of our community. SPC reserves the right to designate a small number of spaces independent of the jury process.

Plowshares is an opportunity for us to share the work of our own hands. To that end, no kits or manufactured items may be sold. Crafts must be made primarily by the craftsperson's or community group members' own hands. Aside from logo items, Community Groups must clear all sale items with the Plowshares Committee before the show.

We respect traditional crafts and those who create them as a means of cultural expression and livelihood. For example, we only accept Native American style crafts if made by Native American craftspeople.

Many shoppers, especially children, are looking for crafts that are inexpensive. Having a range of prices will be much appreciated by these buyers and may provide more sales. Seconds, for example, usually sell quite well.

A small number of spaces will be set aside for groups of several craftspeople. EACH PERSON MUST APPLY INDIVIDUALLY. SEND ALL THE APPLICATIONS AND FULL PAYMENT TOGETHER IN THE SAME ENVELOPE. Take care to use enough postage. All craftspeople must attend both days.

EVERY YEAR PLOWSHARES GROWS IN POPULARITY...

The last few years we have received many more applications than available spaces. With our anonymous jury process, even some folks who have been with us for years may not get a space. We wish everyone could be included and hope that whatever happens you will connect in some way to Plowshares this year. We welcome your thoughts about how to promote quality, diversity and fairness to all that apply.
