

Celebrate Indigenous Peoples Day, not Columbus Day

Monday October 8th

4:30-6 pm

Columbus Circle, downtown Syracuse
(Rain location: Plymouth Church, 232 East Onondaga Street)

Local Speakers! Music! Poetry!

We join together to acknowledge the sovereignty and history of indigenous peoples of the Americas as well as the traumatic legacy of Christopher Columbus's actions here.

Organized by Neighbors of the Onondaga Nation (NOON), a grassroots effort of the Syracuse Peace Council. NOON supports Onondaga Nation's government sovereignty and their Land Rights Action and collaborates with them on environmental protection and restoration. Contact us at (315) 472-5478.
