

From Pakistan to Syracuse:

Grassroots Resistance to Drones

with Pakistani-American activist Noor Mir
of CODEPINK Women Against War

77th Syracuse Peace Council
77th Birthday
Dinner

Saturday, October 5, 2013
Pebble Hill Presbyterian Church
(5299 Jamesville Rd. Dewitt)
$15-50 sliding scale ($25 suggested)

Doors 6pm • Dinner 6:30pm • Program 7:30pm

Celebrate the Peace Council's 77th birthday and enjoy a tasty vegetarian meal followed by a talk and discussion with Noor Mir from CodePink Women Against War. Based in Washington Dc, Noor is the anti-drones campaign coordinator for CODEPINK calls Islamabad, Pakistan her home. She graduated from Vassar College in 2012 with a major in Political Science and French and English. While studying abroad at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland, she took courses on international law and targeted killings and was driven by what she learned to turn it into a year long research thesis on drone warfare in Pakistan. Noor is passionate about killer drones, humanitarian law and race relations.

(315)472-5478 • ursula@peacecouncil.net
For more information and to make your reservation, peacecouncil.net